~~[(b)]~~ (2) Amounts accepted by the book as wagers on contingencies whose outcomes have not been determined; and

~~[(e)]~~ (3) Amounts due the patron on wagers whose outcomes have been determined but that have not been posted to the patron's wagering account.

After the book begins operations, the book's reserve must comply with subsection 1.

Except as otherwise provided in subsections 4 and 5, the reserve must be unencumbered and must not be commingled with funds of the book or any of its owners, employees, affiliates, or other persons or entities associated with the book.~~

~~4.]~~ The reserve described in subsection[s] 1 ~~[and 2]~~ may be combined as a single amount for a book and its satellite books.

~~[5.]~~ 2. The reserve described in subsection~~[s]~~ 1 ~~[and 2]~~ may be combined as a single amount with the reserve described in NGC Regulation 22.040.

If the reserve is maintained in the form of a bond, it must be written by a bona fide insurance carrier. The reserve must be established pursuant to a written agreement between the book and the financial institution or insurance carrier, but the book may engage an intermediary company or agent acceptable to the chairman to deal with the institution or carrier, in which event the reserve may be established pursuant to written agreements between the book and the intermediary and between the intermediary and the financial institution or insurance carrier.~~

~~7. The agreements described in subsection 6 must reasonably protect the reserve against claims of the book's creditors other than the patrons for whose benefit and protection the reserve is established, and must provide that:~~

~~(a) The reserve is established and held in trust for the benefit and protection of patrons to the extent the book holds money for their account, has accepted wagers from them on contingencies whose outcomes have not been determined, or owes them on winning wagers;~~

~~(b) The reserve must not be released, in whole or in part, except to the board on the written demand of the chairman or to the book on the written instruction of the chairman. Each book shall submit to the chairman all information and copies of all documents relating to its proposed reserve arrangement, including copies of the agreements described in subsections 6 and 7, and must obtain the chairman's approval of the agreements and of the reserve arrangement generally. The chairman shall determine whether the agreements and arrangement satisfy the purposes and requirements of this section, may require appropriate changes or withhold approval if they do not, and shall notify the book of the determination. Amendments to reserve agreements or arrangements must be approved in the same manner.~~

~~9. A book must calculate its reserve requirement each day. Each book must engage an independent certified public accountant to examine the pertinent records relating to the reserve each month and determine the reserve amounts required by this section for each day of the previous month and the reserve amounts actually maintained by the book on the corresponding days. The accountant shall report the findings with respect to each day of the month under review in writing to the chairman and the book no later than the tenth day of the next month. requirements of this section and is confirmed to the chairman's satisfaction.

~~13. If the report indicates that the amount of the reserve exceeds the requirements of this section, the chairman shall, at the book's request, instruct the financial institution, insurance carrier, or intermediary to remit the excess to the book or, in the case of a bond, to reduce the bond accordingly.~~

~~14. When a book ceases operating and its license lapses or is surrendered or revoked, the chairman may demand payment of the reserve, any income accruing on the reserve after operations cease, and, if instructions from the chairman that income accruing on the reserve not be paid to the book are in effect when operations cease, any income accruing since the instructions took effect. The board may interplead the funds in state district court for distribution to the patrons for whose protection and benefit the reserve was established and to such other persons as the court determines are entitled thereto, or shall take such other steps as are necessary to effect the proper distribution of the funds, or may do both.~~
