Dear Ms. Elloyan

Please be advised I have been involved in the management/operation of online casinos since 2003.

I think Nevada should:

1. accept players from all states that do NOT have laws that prohibit online gaming. The seven states that have laws against internet gambling are: Washington, Oregon, Iowa, Louisiana, Illinois, Indiana and Utah. This would not in my opinion require any "pacts" with the states.
2. All player disputes should be handled by the current Nevada Gaming Commission.
3. The state government should allow for all casino games except sportsbook which is illegal under the 1961 Wire Act.
4. All tax revenue should be paid to Nevada.

I hope the above comments help you in your assignment.

Best regards David
