Mi nombre es Mercedes Cabrera.

He trabajado en Green Valley Ranch hace 17 años como kitchen worker.

Estoy luchando para que mis beneficios estén asegurados por un contrato y para que mis compañeros y yo tengamos seguridad laboral.

Tenemos más de 10 años luchando. Hace 6 años atrás, ganamos nuestra elección sindical y Station Casinos dijo que respetaría la decisión de los trabajadores. Todavía no hemos visto ese respeto.

Station casinos no es una compañía justa porq no recibimos aumentos iguales...lo dan por desigualdad y favoritismo y no es justo para nosotrosa como trabajadores! Porque los miembros de la culinaria reciben sus aumentos por igualdad!! Poreso seguimos luchando por un contrato justo!

Gracias

My name is Mercedes Cabrera. I have worked at Green Valley Ranch for 17 years as a kitchen worker.

I am fighting for my benefits to be guaranteed by a contract and for my colleagues and I to have security in our jobs. We have been fighting for more than 10 years. 6 years ago we won our union election and Station Casinos said that it would respect the workers' decision and we still have not seen that respect.

Station Casinos is not a fair company because we do not receive equal raises... they give it because of inequality and favoritism and it is not fair for us as workers! Because the members of the Culinary Union receive their raises because of equality!! That is why we continue to fight for a fair contract!

Thank you.

Good morning. Briana Carbajal for the Culinary Union. Essential to a law enforcement system is telling the truth and nothing but the truth in law enforcement proceedings. As we have told you before, the National Labor Relations Board found that top executives Station Casinos testified under oath in a 2021 federal proceeding “with such an unusual degree of evasiveness and wholly implausible forgetfulness” that a judge was “fully warranted in discounting their testimony as generally unreliable except where independently corroborated or against the Respondent’s interest.”

At question was whether the Chief Operating Officer, the Chief Legal Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, and its Vice President of HR charged with overseeing labor strategy provided credible testimony about that labor strategy and how they discussed it with owners of the company. In law enforcement proceedings, gaming company executives need to give credible, truthful testimony about significant company strategies and how owners engage in those strategies. No gaming company or its executives should have a problem testifying truthfully and without evasiveness in any kind of law enforcement proceeding.

In the 2021 hearing, a lawyer for the federal agency tasked with labor law enforcement questioned the HR executive in charge of labor strategy about MUD lists, which are lists that Station created indicating which employees were pro-management, which were pro-union, and which were “don’t know.” The lawyer for the government asked the executive: “So would there be departmental MUD lists?” The executive responded, “Sure.” The government lawyer then asked, “Have you ever seen one of them?” The Station executive asked: “Have I physically seen a MUD list?” The government lawyer responded: “Yeah, let's say for Red Rock.” “No, I've never seen one,” the Station executive responded.

We find this testimony to be highly implausible. This same Station executive was responsible for introducing the concept of MUD lists to the company, for providing training to managers about creating MUD lists, and for reviewing MUD lists with subordinates as part of Station’s scheme to get rid of the Union. We think it defies belief that he never saw one of the lists that he instructed those under him to create.

We encourage the Board to ensure all license holders give credible testimony when under oath. If they can’t do that, they don’t deserve to operate gaming enterprises in our State.
