Good morning. Aira Duyanen for the Culinary Union. The U.S. agency in charge of federal labor law enforcement obtained texts and emails between Station Casinos executives and directors in response to a subpoena in one of the largest labor law enforcement actions in U.S. history. An example are certain emails between Station Casinos's former Chief Operating Officer and the former General Manager of Green Valley Ranch about creating a MUD List for GVR.

We know that Station Casinos executives ordered supervisors to create M.U.D. Lists during the pandemic to keep track of which employees were pro-management (M), pro-union (U), or don't know (D). Among other nefarious purposes, there is evidence that Stations used these designations to "vet" certain employees who had lost their jobs as a result of the pandemic to determine whether they should be rehired. It is illegal for an employer to discriminate based on union preference when hiring workers.

But M.U.D. lists were used for other reasons as well. On July 3, 2020 at 11:19 am, the COO sent an email to the GM at GVR stating, "I shared your thoughts following in the footsteps of Palace and Boulder. Has your Team prepared a MUD List for GVR? If you have and would like [Senior Vice President of Corporate HR] and me to come over next week to meet with you and your Team to discuss next steps let me know and we can get something scheduled." A few minutes later, the GM wrote back, "Yes that would be great. We have not prepared a MUD list yet. With the busy holiday weekend, we will get one completed by Wednesday next week." A minute later, the COO answered, "Sounds good. Do you want me to schedule something for late next week or wait until you confirm you have the list?"

At the very time that GVR's General Manager was expressing his desire to follow in the "footsteps of Palace and Boulder," Station Casinos was orchestrating a campaign at those properties to solicit employees to sign anti-union petitions. It would later use these petitions to withdraw recognition from the union. The federal government alleges in the ongoing ULP trial that Station's actions was illegal. The MUD lists were entered as a key piece of evidence at the trial.

You should ask yourselves: During the middle of a pandemic when Nevada workers were literally dying, why would the Chief Operating Officer of a company that your agency regulates think it was necessary to solicit a list of gaming employees' sentiments about unions? Why would that COO push for a meeting about the next steps pertaining to that MUD List? You have the authority to investigate whether this company is adhering to the high standards necessary to operating a gaming enterprise in our state. You should do so. Thank you.

Sounds good. Do you want me to schedule something for late next week or wait until you confirm you have the list?

Yes that would be great. We have not prepared a MUD list yet. With the busy holiday weekend, we will get one completed by Wednesday next week.

I shared your thoughts on following in the footsteps of Palace and Boulder. Has your Team prepared a MUD List for GVR? If you have and would like Phil and me to come over next week to meet with you and your Team to discuss next steps let me know and we can get something scheduled. Bob

My name is Casiano Corpus. I have worked at Palace Station as a Utility Porter for 33 years.

I am a union committee leader inside Palace Station, which means I talk to my coworkers and organize them to fight for a union contract. The reason I became a union committee leader was so that I could provide a better life and future for my family. I want to have better pay, a pension, and better insurance.

Station Casinos does not want to give us what we are asking for. Every day I go to work, I am afraid because I don't know which day might be my last day.

We only want Station Casinos to respect the daily struggle of us employees, and to sit with us at the negotiating table and sign a union contract.

Thank you very much, and God bless.
