Good morning. Aira Duyanen for the Culinary Union. My comments are about Station Casinos Chief Legal Officer Jeffrey Welch. Mr. Welch's job duties include "devot[ing] full time and attention to the business and affairs of the Company," according to his employer's 2017 filing with the SEC. A CLO of a publicly traded, Nevada gaming company should be credible when testifying under oath about significant matters.

In November 2019, Mr. Welch was in the meeting with Station Casinos owners and others executives where senior management made a written presentation seeking approval for millions of dollars in spending to finance new health and retirement benefits. The presentation emphasized key points through underlined and red-bolded text to stress how funding the benefits would take away union power and disincentivize employees from supporting it. Prior to the meeting, Mr. Welch reviewed the presentation about a weaponized employee benefit scheme. In December 2019, Mr. Welch was a participant in a group text chat with Station Casinos owners where Mr. Welch crowed that employees had removed union buttons after meetings announcing the benefits. So Mr. Welch was in a meeting with underlined, bolded red content and sent a message into a chat with updates about the roll out of plans partly discussed in that meeting.

Yet, according to the judge that presided over the unfair labor practice trial, Mr. W other executives testifying under oath "refused to admit that that there was any discussion at the meeting regarding the underlined and bolded red points in the health insurance and retirement proposals about incentivizing employees not to vote for a union and taking away union power." The judge found Mr. Welch's account not to be credible. Station Casinos is appealing that finding, but you should ask yourselves why there should even be a doubt about Mr. Welch's ability to provide transparent testimony in a government proceeding. As the Chief Legal Officer, Mr. Welch is supposed to devote his full time and attention to the business and affairs of the Company. And we believe a chief legal officer should be able to provide credible testimony under oath. Thanks.

My name is Casiano Corpus. I have worked at Palace Station as a Utility Porter for 33 years.

I am a union committee leader inside Palace Station, which means I talk to my coworkers and organize them to fight for a union contract. The reason I became a union committee leader was so that I could provide a better life and future for my family. I want to have better pay, a pension, and better insurance.

Station Casinos does not want to give us what we are asking for. Every day I go to work, I am afraid because I don't know which day might be my last day.

We only want Station Casinos to respect the daily struggle of us employees, and to sit with us at the negotiating table and sign a union contract.

Thank you very much, and God bless.

Re: Nonrestricted Agenda Item #7f and #7 - N25-0430 (Re: 17183-01, 17183-01, 09992-01, 09992-01) June 11, 2025 agenda

Dear Chair Hendrick, Judge Assad and Board Member Sendall,

I have attended and commented at previous Board meetings and Commission meetings on this matter which occurred in October and November in 2024. This letter is a follow up to the public letters I submitted on those occasions.

Please be advised that the contentious and comprehensive litigation I previously alerted the Board to is still pending. That litigation is taking place in California and directly relates to my and my brother's (David Seeno) interest as beneficiaries in a Trust that holds shares of several Nevada gaming operations. The Temporary Restraining Orders in those lawsuits remain active and prevent the Trustee, Ronald Hawkins, and the Trustors (Albert Seeno Jr. and Sandra Seeno) from diverting the Trust's income or substituting the casino shares it holds as assets. We fully expect the court will leave those orders in effect until a presently-unscheduled trial occurs. The Investigations Division has been provided with copies of these orders and I have had in person discussions with the Investigations Division within the last 60 days. I believe the reason this matter is coming back before the Board and the Commission is that no action was taken over these past 6-7 months because of the valid restraining orders. In light of this, I again ask that the Board consider deferring any action on these agenda items. Any attempted conveyance would violate the California court's orders. I believe the proposed transactions on the agenda will otherwise be used by the Trustors to violate those orders. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Albert Seeno. III
