This public comment agenda item is provided in accordance with NRS 241.020(2)(c)(3) which requires an agenda provide for a period devoted to comments by the general public, if any, and discussion of those comments. No action may be taken upon a matter raised under this item of the agenda until the matter itself has been specifically included on an agenda as an item upon which action will be taken. PUBLIC COMMENTS AND DISCUSSION: No comments.

Good morning. My name is Diamante Asberry, and I'm here representing the Culinary Union. We are here again to ask for a comprehensive investigation of Station Casinos and to give another reason why.

I want to update you on a public meeting that took place a few weeks ago, on September 14th, in the City of North Las Vegas where Station Casinos is seeking to develop a new casino resort.

Station Casinos Chief Legal Officer Jeffrey Welch stood before a public commission and an audience with casino workers and claimed, "So we consider ourselves to have been a very solid citizen throughout the pandemic."

In the audience of this meeting were workers from Station Casinos closed properties that are set for demolition. Their reaction to what the Chief Legal Officer said was raw and emotional. I was there.

As we've told you before, the U.S. government is prosecuting Station Casinos for allegedly engaging in a scheme to use layoffs during the pandemic to undermine unions.

When Station Casinos' chief legal officer was speaking he made claims about Nevada law that are not true. Mr. Welch said "For the last 14 months, we actually have not been permitted to hire any of these people to our other properties because of SB 386, which did not allow us to act."

This is not true. The Chief Legal Officer for a Nevada gaming company should understand Nevada law. All SB386 requires each property to do is to first rehire the employees from that property. If there were openings after they were offered to the employees from that property, there is nothing in the law that prohibited Station Casinos from hiring employees from other properties. And, of course, there is nothing in the law that would have prohibited Station Casinos from rehiring employees with their seniority intact, vacation intact and wage rates intact.

In May of this year, the NLRB's general counsel issued a new complaint against Station Casinos alleging that the reason the company has failed to recall workers as required by SB 386 was to discriminate against them because they had advocated for its passage through rallies, press statements, and testimony before the Nevada legislature, and that this was yet another way that the company has tried to discourage support for the union.

And finally, as we've told you before, Mr. Welch was among the Station Casinos executives whose credibility while testifying under oath was questioned by an Administrative Law Judge of the National Labor Relations Board involving Red Rock Casino Resort & Spa. The judge found Mr. Welch and other Red Rock Resorts Inc. executives to have given highly questionable, discredited testimony about significant matters even though they were testifying under oath. Red Rock Casino Resort & Spa has excepted to the findings.

We urge you to speak with Station Casinos Chief Legal Officer about what he has said under oath and on the public record. Thank you.

Hello. My name is Dulce Valladares. I have worked for Station Casinos for 6 years. Before the pandemic, I worked as a full-time cook's helper at The Feast Buffet at Sunset Station.

With the pandemic closure in 2020, we were informed that the buffet was not going to reopen, and that we were laid off and out of a job.

I then attended 3 job fairs held at Boulder Station, Red Rock, and Green Valley. About one month before the right to return law came into effect, I was hired for a position as a new part time cook. This position had lower pay than I made as a cook's helper, no seniority, and no benefits. The company treated me as a new hire after the pandemic even though I had already worked for them for 6 years.

I am a full-time cook now, but I want my seniority back. I want Stations to respect the workers who have worked for them for years.

Thank you.
