NOTICE TO LICENSEES

Notice #: 2014-10

Issuing Division: Investigations

DATE: JANUARY 24, 2014
TO: ALL LICENSEES AND OTHER INTERESTED PERSONS
FROM: A.G. BURNETT, CHAIRMAN
SUBJECT: NOTICE OF PROCEDURE FOR FILING AN EMPLOYEE REPORT AS A RESULT OF THE REPEAL OF NGC REGULATION 22.035

This notice is to inform all licensees and other interested persons of the new procedure for filing an employee report with the Gaming Control Board. As a result of the repeal of NGC Regulation 22.035 by the Nevada Gaming Commission on November 21, 2013, licensees shall now follow the reporting requirements as outlined in Nevada Gaming Commission Regulation 3.100.

NGC Regulation 3.100 was amended by the Nevada Gaming Commission in November 2013 to account for the deletion of NGC Regulation 22.035. Pertinent changes are found in NGC Regulation 3.100 (2) (c), which reads as follows:

“2. All nonrestricted licensees, including each manufacturer, distributor, service provider, operator of a slot machine route, of a mobile gaming system, of interactive gaming, or of an inter-casino linked system, and each pari-mutuel systems operator shall submit an employee report to the board two times yearly within 30 days after March 31st and within 30 days after September 30th. The report shall identify every person who is, as of March 31st or September 30th, whichever is most recent, a qualifying employee. The report shall also identify, as of March 31st or September 30th, whichever is most recent, the following persons who are not otherwise qualifying employees:” ...

“(c) Any individual who fulfills the function of race book or sports pool manager, race book or sports pool supervisor, or who determines race book or sports pool betting odds, point spreads or betting lines.”
