UPON THE FOREGOING and upon the recommendation of the State Gaming Control Board that the application of Bally Manufacturing Corporation for continued registration as a publicly traded corporation be approved, and upon the consent and agreement of the Applicant, to the following limitations and conditions,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED by the Nevada Gaming Commission:

1. That the application of Bally Manufacturing Corporation for continued registration as a publicly traded company be, and the same hereby is, accepted;

2. That Bally Manufacturing Corporation shall be, and hereby is, continued to be registered as a publicly traded corporation pursuant to and subject to all the terms and conditions of the Order of Registration dated March 21, 1975, and all subsequent amendments thereto, including this Order, for the remainder of the third consecutive probationary period of registration;

3. That upon the termination of the third consecutive period of probationary registration as created by the Order of March 21, 1975, it is hereby declared that the registration of Bally Manufacturing Corporation as a publicly traded company be, and it hereby is, probationary for an additional three consecutive limited one year periods upon the same terms and conditions as established in the Order of March 21, 1975, as subsequently amended, and it is further provided that the Applicant's registration shall expire upon the respective termination dates of the additional limited one year periods unless otherwise extended by the Commission.

4. That the following additional conditions to continued registration are hereby imposed upon the Applicant:

(a) The Applicant shall cause Mr. Jack Rooklyn to apply for licensing and/or appropriate findings of suitability with the Commission on or before December 31, 1977, or cause him
